

25X1

7 October 1946

Country: Poland
 Subject: Order of Battle
 Information dates:
 Evaluation:
 Reference:

25X1

6th Light Artillery Division "Grunwald"

Personalities: CO - General of Division Szejpak (Pole)
 All other Staff Officers are Russian.

Components: 23rd Light Artillery Regt. (P.A.L.)
 Other components unidentified.

23rd Light Artillery Regt.

Location: Bielako, Upper Silesia.

Personalities: CO - Col. Nowakowski (Soviet Officer of Polish descent)

Chief of Staff: Capt. Labanov (Soviet). Previously commanded the 1st "Dywizjon" of the Regt.

Staff Officer: Major Kosiak (Pole). Came to Poland from Italy at the end of the war.

Components: Three "Dywizjon", each with three batteries numbered consecutively. Of the three batteries, two have prime movers and one is horse-drawn. Every "Dywizjon" has from eight to ten vehicles.

SECRET

CONTROL
 U.S. OFFICIALS
 ONLY

25X1

25X1

STRATEGIC SERVICES UNIT-WAR DEPARTMENT

-2-

Equipment: Each battery is equipped with 4 x 122 mm guns. Comment: Subsource insisted that the calibre of the guns was correct despite the title of Regiment.)

25X1

25X1

6th Air Staff, Polish Forces
(6-ty Szab Lotniczy Wojsk Polskich)

Location: Pruszkow (17 Km. N.E.W. of Warsaw).

Residence: Mokotow (Southern suburb of Warsaw).

CO: Unknown Russian Col. Gen.

Military Deputy: Lieut. Gen. Koblukov (Soviet)

Economic Deputy: Major Biesonsow (Pole)
(Wydzial Gospodarczy)

25X1

SECRET

CONTROL
U.S. OFFICIALS
ONLY